Last Meeting - December 13, 2007: Rincon/University 60 Mountain View 53

MT. VIEW MOUNTAIN LIONS (14-9)

Vs.

RINCON/UNIVERSITY RANGERS (9-14)

Tonight's Matchup:

The Rangers are on a seven game slide, but as of now, none of that matters. If they win this game they will clinch at least second in the region. If they win their last three region games, they will be outright region champions. If current power points hold, they will host a state playoff game. There is still a lot to be excited about and it all begins tonight versus Mountain View. To put this simply: this is the most important game for Rincon so far this season. These teams have split wins this season with this being the regular season grudge match. Rincon must hold down Andre Hatchett and Aaron Anderson as they did in the second meeting. If they can, they will likely improve to 3-1 in the 5A-II Southern Region.

Buena 74 Rincon 58

Two of the best posts in Southern Arizona were on display Tuesday night. Rincon's Gilbert Tafoya had a monster game, finishing with 26 points and 12 rebounds. On the other end, Buena's Brandon MacLellan scored 18 of his 23 in the first half to help give the Colts a 32-18 halftime lead. While the Rangers were able to play basically even with Buena in the second half, they were unable to overcome the early lead. Andrew Martinez also contributed 13 points for Rincon. This marks the fourth and final meeting of these two teams this season, all of which were won by Buena. The Colts are second in power points in 5A-I and are en route to an undefeated region record.
