Sahuaro

No roster has been submitted. Junior, Dior Ford, likely #45, is the only real threat for a Sahuaro team that returns six players from last year's 11-16 team. The Cougars were pounded in the Ironwood Ridge Thanksgiving Tournament last week.

Vs.

RINCON/UNIVERSITY RANGERS (3-2)

Salpointe Tip Off Classic:

For the third straight year, the Rangers began their season in the local Thanksgiving week tournament. Rincon's pool consisted of three of the toughest teams in Southern Arizona (One that is picked to win their region and two that are picked to finish second). The season opener pitted the Rangers against Amphi Aided by Billy Morrison's 21 points along with 13 rebounds and Ivan Gonzalez's 12 points and 7 rebounds, it was Juan Pablo Favela who stole the show with the final three of his 19 with one second remaining to win 73-70. Rincon followed with a solid effort against Buena in a 63-56 win and against Cienega in a 61-50 win. Morrison and Favela continued to pace the Rangers and sophomore, Dylan Hidalgo, contributed 11 against the Bobcats. For the second straight year, the Rangers won their pool and prepared for a semifinal on Friday. However, for the second straight year, the holiday weekend did not bring much joy. Tempe McClintock ran Rincon out of the gym despite Morrison's 22 points and 11 rebounds. The Chargers got out early and often en route to a 74-57 victory. The Rangers finished the tournament with a 53-52 lost to the host Salpointe Lancers. Mesa Red Mountain won the tournament and Juan Pablo Favela was one of five players chosen for the all-tournament team. Rincon showed some real promise this week, but they still have a long way to go to be considered legitimate contenders
