

Last Meeting - November 23, 2015: Salpointe 66 Rincon/University 61

#5 Salpointe Lancers (11-4)

vs.

#26 Rincon/University Rangers (11-7)

Tonight's Matchup:

For the first time this season, the Rangers will play a rematch of an earlier contest. In the season opener, these teams went back and forth, resulting in a 5 point Lancer victory. Salpointe hit 11 three pointers in that game as they are apt to do with Cameron Miller, Isaac Cruz, Ethan Parkhurst, and Alec McCall spacing around the arc. Freshmen Majok Deng provides their interior presence and athleticism. Similar to Foothills, the Lancers will look to spread the floor and create for shooters. After defeating Sunnyside on Tuesday, the Lancers are the top-ranked team in Southern Arizona

Catalina Foothills 70 Rincon 66

The Rangers lost a heartbreaker Wednesday night, falling apart in the fourth quarter after earning a twelve-point lead. The Falcons, contained for much of the evening, found their groove and cut the lead to two with four minutes remaining, when Brendan Rumel, who finished with 20 points, 16 rebounds and four blocks, was forced to exit the game with injury. During his two minute absence, Foothills continued their run and took the lead for the first time and held on to win. Thomas Wabaunsee, James Chabin, and Max Siath each had 11, Wabaunsee with 5 assists and Chabin with 8 rebounds.
