

Last Meeting - January 22, 2013: Tucson High 73 Rincon/University 70

#22 Tucson High Badgers (14-10)

vs.

#17 Rincon/University Rangers (14-10)

Tonight's Matchup:

Tucson and Rincon meet up tonight for the first time in over three years. This late season non-section contest interrupts the Badgers drive towards a section title. They are 4-0 in the other DII section with games next week against Salpointe and Catalina Foothills. Rincon meanwhile, is looking to kick a two-game skid. To do so, they will need contributions not only inside, but from the guard line as well. For Tucson High, guards Deondre Eason, Parker Trujillo, and Jordan Robinson spread around the scoring, each averaging over 14 points per game. Tyree Pierson will man the inside for the Badgers, attempting to contain player of the year prospect, Brendan Rumel. Both of these teams currently sit on the good side of the state tournament bubble, with 24 teams qualifying.

Cienega 67 Rincon 46

Coming off their difficult home loss to Sunnyside, the Rangers were unable to bounce back and fell at Cienega on Tuesday. The Bobcats jumped out to a 9-2 lead fueled by a breakaway dunk by Alex Muszynski. Rincon cut the lead to 21-16 before Cienega broke it open to 36-21 at the half. The Rangers never were able to close the deficit to single digits again. Brendan Rumel got 19 points and 11 rebounds while Estevan Sandoval had 8, including two three-pointers. Rincon was doomed by 29 turnovers committed by 11 different players. The loss to Cienega, ranked 9th, only dropped the Rangers one spot in power rankings. Sunnyside plays at Cienega tomorrow night in a game that will likely decide the section champion.
