

Last Meeting - January 20, 2016: Rincon/University 72 Buena 65

Sierra Vista Buena Colts (9-0)

vs.

Rincon/University Rangers (3-8)

Tonight's Matchup:

The Rangers face one of their toughest matchups of the year against a Colts team that is firing on all cylinders. Junior Dominic Mooney Jr (#24) makes everything go for Buena. The lefty point guard is a driving threat in both directions and an over 30% three-point shooter. Mooney averages 12 points a game while sophomore Kino Bellinger (#20) is averaging 14. He has hit 23 three-pointers already this season. David Featherston (#42) and Cyrus Thomas (#34) hold down the inside for the Colts and swingman Grant Ward (#32) provides versatility for the Colts, scoring inside and outside.

Horizon 88 Rincon 67

Last Friday night, the Rangers fell behind early to a high-powered Horizon team and struggled to get back into the game. Sophomore Aidyn Albright scored 13 of the first 15 Husky points on his way to 35 on the night. Post Gabe Zdrale hurt Rincon inside, going 9-12 from the floor for 23 points. There were some bright spots for the Rangers. Malik Hunter had his second strong performance of the week and Max Siath came to life with a season-high 18 points. The JV and Freshmen Rangers both won again, each with four players in double figures. They are a combined 11-1 now on the year.

Holiday Preview

Tonight marks the final home game of the first semester for the Rangers, who will travel to Catalina Foothills on Friday and Palo Verde on Monday before taking finals next week. Foothills (6-3) sports two of the best guards in town in Sam Beskind and Jared Irwin. Both are good sized for their positions and can cause matchup problems for opponents. The Falcons beat the Rangers in the opening game of the Salpointe Tip Off 66-54. Palo Verde (4-4) is led by brothers Taivionn (junior) and Zion Sandoval (sophomore). Rincon will take some time off before travelling to Phoenix for Greenway High School's holiday tournament December 27-30. Rincon plays Millenium in their opening match of the 16-team bracket style tournament. The Tigers defeated the Rangers 68-60 earlier this year. Other Southern Arizona teams in the field are Tucson High and Walden Grove, both on the other side of the bracket.
