

Last Meeting - December 7, 2015: Rincon/University 72 CDO 39

Canyon del Oro Dorados (5-14)

vs.

Rincon/University Rangers (9-13)

Tonight's Matchup:

The Dorados are in rebuilding mode, coming off a season in which they were 0-18 in the regular season. So far this year CDO has played many teams close, including a 7 point loss to Walden Grove and a 12 point loss to Salpointe last week. They are on the verge, but so far have not been able to get over the hump. They have yet to win a true road game this year. According to incomplete stats from MaxPreps, junior guard Chase Deputy (#25) is leading the Dorados in scoring at about 14 points per game. The Rangers currently sit one spot outside of the 24 team 6A playoff picture. Winning their region would result in an automatic bid but a wild card spot is still possible with two wins this week. Beating Salpointe, currently 3rd in 4A, would provide a big boost to those chances but first Rincon must take care of tonight to hold their current position.

Rincon 76 Sunnyside 63

Last Thursday night, the Rangers played one of their best games of the year and nabbed their first region win. Sunnyside hit a few early shots to claim a 10-3 lead, but Rincon took over from there, carrying a nine point advantage into the half and controlling the game the rest of the way. The Blue Devils were unable to penetrate the Ranger defense, instead settling for numerous outside shots. On the other end, Estevan Sandoval led the way for Rincon with 21 points and four other Rangers (Hunter, Bahige, Cable, Kitubure) scored in double figures. Malik Hunter pulled down 9 rebounds while Joey Cable had 7 along with 7 assists. The Rangers are now 1-1 in region play with games against Tucson and Sunnyside next week. Winning both would mean Rincon would play in the region championship game at home on Tuesday February 7th.
